

representation

representation 🌻

fan produced works created a space for new storylines and alternate universes where characters became the people and community participants needed. they allowed the character to know the fan and the relationship to feel two-way.

time with characters

fan productivity and world building

