🌀 because characters change across media texts

—. audiences have to build their own image of —. character

🙁 character variation affects how we feel about —. characters which affects possible PSRs understanding character building

🌀 because characters change across media texts, audiences have to build their own image of character

☹️ character variation affects how we feel about characters which affects possible PSRs